

Chickpea Scoop

Dried beans is a sensory delight to play with, and one kids are sure to love playing with over and over again.

I like this activity because it is simple, inexpensive, and you can use different types of beans (or a combination) for your kids to play with.

You just need some beans, a big bowl, a sensory tub, scoops and a few smaller containers to play.

What you'll need

- Bowls
- Beans
- Plastic Tray

Steps

1. Gather all the supplies
2. Add supplies to the sensory bin
3. Show your kids how to play

Kids will learn about:
